ANOTHER FACTORY.

The citizens of Ocala are now at work on a fertilizer and guano factory with some show of success.

A citizens' meeting will probably be held Wednesday night to come to some understanding in the matter.

We will have more details to publish by tomorrow.

Good men are at the head of this enterprise, and they want the people of Ocala to lend them all the assistance in their power.

Our people are beginning to recover their wonted energy, and since getting on their feet from the recent calamities, find that they are not hurt as bad as they are scared, and that our county has many resources left.

Our people are determined to develop their long dormant resources. Ocala is all right.

So are her people.

They have had a little sleep, but are awakened now, and are going to do something.

The commissioner of agriculture, Hon. L. B. Wombwell, has gone to New York to be treated for kidney trouble. The people of Florida wish him a speedy recovery.

CLEAN out the weeds and grass from your premises and street front, and the force of your example and the striking contrast will compel your next door neighbor to do likewise. Thus the good work will spread like an epidemic and the city will present a vastly cleaner and brighter appearance.

In the value of her farm products per acre, Florida is led by only two states, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, which lead all other states in the union with a per acre value of $16 and $15 respectively. New Jersey and Florida come next with $12 per acre. Think of it! Florida leads 45 states, is led by two and one marches abreast with her in the value of farm products per acre. Yet there are thousands of people who think Florida is nothing but swamps and a howling wilderness.—Orlando Reporter.
